Hi James,

Can you give me a call tomorrow? This case is on for trial soon. We only have one cert (number above). The police submitted two types of drugs....about 20 oxys...an about a gram of cocaine. The drug receipt from the lab shows only the one lab number for both types of drugs. The cert says "5 baggies" and it tested positive for just cocaine. So my question is basically did the pills get tested....did they get their own lab number....etc. I spoke with Sharon there today and she said to email you.

Thanks,
Dan
